Re: 2011-12 Grand Jury Report "Reducing Truancy Throughout the County-
A Prudent Investment"

To the Honorable Judge Brian Hill and Grand Jury Members,

As requested in your letter of June 7, 2012, here are my responses to the following findings and recommendations in the above-referenced report:

Finding 2 – The Carpinteria Unified School District agrees.

Finding 3 – The Carpinteria Unified School District agrees.

Finding 5 – For "revenue limit" districts, the Carpinteria Unified School District agrees.

Recommendation 1 – The level of District Attorney official support is too vague at this time to agree or disagree with this recommendation.

Recommendation 4 – The Carpinteria Unified School District agrees.

Recommendation 5 – Not applicable. The Carpinteria Unified School District is a property tax funded (Basic Aid) school district.

Recommendation 6 – See response to Recommendation 5, above.

Sincerely yours,

Paul Cordeiro
